HOLY WORK ON HUMAN TIME

AI FOR YOUTH MINISTRY

Will Smith is the Director of Liturgy and Music at Mount Saint Peter Parish, with more than two decades of experience in ministry and music. He also draws on nearly a decade of digital marketing expertise, speaking at both ministry and business events to help leaders bridge the gap between faith and technology. His passion is making the complex—musical, liturgical, or digital—clear and approachable in service of the Church's mission.

Topics:

- AI is everywhere—youth ministers need to understand it to guide teens wisely.
- History of AI and where we are today.
- Current stats on teen AI use and what that means for ministry.
- Demonstrate safe, practical AI tools for scheduling, communication, and ministry event planning.
- Interactive projects: e.g., merging school, sports, and parish calendars into one schedule.
- Rooted in Catholic teaching—drawing on Pope Francis' and Pope Leo XIV reflections on technology and human dignity.
- Participants will walk away with confidence, ready-to-use tools, and language to discuss AI with young people.
