

Time, Talent, & Treasure Assessment

We were created to love! We know from scripture that loving God means obeying him (John 14:15). It is such a great blessing to know that God has planned for us to be involved in His work and that He wants us to be truly happy.

As stewards, our role is to submit our time, our talent, and our treasure to Him. This tool is designed to help you determine your development in these areas.

Begin by circling the number under each statement that corresponds to where you believe you are right now:

- 1 = Thinking about it
- 2 = Just beginning
- 3 = Developing, but room to grow
- 4 = Maturing
- 5 = Got it mastered

Next, add up the numbers in each section and place the sum on the Total line. After you have finished all three sections, see where your score for each area puts you. Lastly, spend a few minutes praying over what you can do to improve and adjust yourself to where God is nudging you.

STEWARDSHIP
A disciple's response

Connecting to Scripture: This reflection will assist you in discerning both your heart and God's heart for giving of yourself holistically and generously. Through prayer, God reveals His will. Take time to listen to how He is inviting you to live out your call to discipleship and His plan to help you become the best version of yourself.

1. What will your steps in stewardship accomplish for God, for others, and for you?

(Matthew 28:19-20, Luke 17:20-21, Philippians 4:15-20 indicate a few)

2. What is your heart prompting you to do? Describe it.

(Exodus 25:1-2, 35:4-29, 1 Corinthians 13:3, 2 Corinthians 9:7-8 speak of some)

3. What is your prayer plan? Describe it.

(Luke 11:9-10, John 17, Matthew 6:5-13 give suggestions)

4. What does sacrifice mean to you? Define it.

(2 Samuel 24:24, Romans 12:1, Luke 21:1-4, 2 Corinthians 8:9 give clues)

5. What can you do to give sacrificially? Start a list.

(1 Chronicles 29:1-10, Acts 2:44-47, Acts 4:32-37, 2 Corinthians 8:1-5 offer ways)
