Our Presenters for the Weekend

Lorena Robles

Lorena Robles is a musician, speaker, and YouTuber who has been involved in Catholic youth and music ministry for 8 years. More recently she has been involved in using her bilingual abilities to help bring together the growing and emerging diversity of Catholics in South Carolina. Lorena is a compassionate, bubbly, and tenacious young woman who enjoys sharing laughs over a plate of tacos almost as much as sharing the gospel or hearing about the ways God impacts lives. She currently resides in Pawleys Island with her family working as a pediatric Occupational Therapist.

Claire Long

Based in Charleston, South Carolina, Claire Long has been involved in Catholic youth and music ministry ever since she directed the music program at her local parish at the age of fourteen. Since then, she has continued to share and grow in faith through her work as an itinerant speaker and worship leader nationwide, particularly with youth and young adults. Through this work, combined with her professional experience in arts management and higher education, Claire brings a spirit of creativity, empathy, and community to her expression of faith. Claire likes warm places, not wearing shoes, and Oxford commas, but what she loves most is helping people recognize their immense value and unique identity in Christ.
