

Retreat for divorced or separated Catholics

Join us for a (virtual) weekend of healing and hope for people who have suffered the pain and isolation of divorce.

Find love and joy again at New Beginnings' online summit.

“New Beginnings Events” which will begin Friday night, 9/11, at 5:30pm (PT), then continue Saturday (9/12) at 9am PT. Since we can do virtual from anywhere, we will have attendees from the US and around the world.

John Gray author of (Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus) will do the opening keynote Friday night, followed by praise and worship. Saturday will begin with Mass at 9am, followed by excellent, expert speakers like Vince Frese, panel discussions with Q/A, and opportunities for quiet time of reflection in virtual prayer rooms.

The entire retreat will be streamed in English and Spanish.
