SAINT SPOTLIGHT:

Saint Gianna

FEAST DAY: APRIL 28

A Blessed Feast of St. Gianna! St. Gianna Beretta Molla was a pediatric physician, a wife, and mother. Graduating from the University of Pavia in 1952, she earned degrees in medicine and surgery. She went on to marry Pietro Molla and they had three children in four years. Two pregnancies following ended in miscarriage. Early in her final pregnancy, doctors discovered a tumor in her uterus. Gianna allowed the surgeons to remove the tumor, but not complete the entire procedure - as it would have killed her baby. She gave birth to Gianna Emanuela Molla in April of 1962, but post-operative complications caused an infection that led to the mother's death.

Gianna Molla was beatified in 1994 and canonized 10 years later. She is the patron saint of mothers, physicians, and unborn children.

ST. GIANNA, PRAY FOR US!

He is Risen, Alleluia!

Jesus loves me and rose
from the dead to save me!
